III. Privacy Notice And Confidentiality

In order to comply with national laws and regulations and international agreements on the exchange of tax data, it is necessary for Crelan to process and disclose personal and financial account information to the national tax authorities and other competent authorities which may provide such information to the country or countries where you are resident for tax purposes.

Like other financial institutions, Crelan is obliged to process the personal information requested. If you do not fill in this form correctly, Crelan may not open your account or, in certain cases, block your account.

Crelan will only process your data for the purposes mentioned above. Crelan takes the necessary measures to protect and process your data in accordance with the applicable legislation, namely the General Data Protection Ordinance of 27 April 2016.

As a customer, you have certain rights which you can exercise free of charge. For more information about this or for further explanation about the processing of your personal data, we refer to the extensive Crelan Privacy Statement, available in our offices and on the bank's website: www.crelan.be/fr/Privacy. If you have any further questions, please contact us by e-mail at privacy@crelan.be or by post at Crelan, Sylvain Dupuislaan 251, 1070 Brussels, for the attention of the Data Protection and Privacy Office.

IV. Declaration On The Accuracy And Reliability Of Data

I certify that the information provided in this form is accurate, correct and complete. I acknowledge and agree to the collection, processing and transfer of my personal data, including the tax identification numbers issued by countries that are not reporting jurisdictions on the date of this form, and the information about my financial account(s), for the purposes set out in Part III above.

I agree to report immediately to Crelan any change in circumstances that results in the information contained in this statement becoming inaccurate and to provide Crelan with a new 'Self-Certification' within 30 days of such change in circumstances.
